

Name of memorial: Ennis Centennial Sphere

Inventory No. 1511

Place: Abbey Street Bridge

Address and map reference: Abbey Street Bridge, Ennis, Co. Clare
Map reference: R 338 776 (Sheet 58).
Co-ordinates: N 52.8461°; W 8.9820°.

Access: at all times. Parking: adjacent. Disabled access: yes.

Position: between the road and the river on the east bank, just south of the bridge.

Description and dimensions: steel sphere..
Height: appx. 300cms. Width: appx. 300cms. Depth: appx.300cms.

Recorded by: Edward Bourke 27 July 2021.

Text:

East side:

Nochtadh an Sfear Ceid seo ar an 26ú Meitheamh 2016 ag an gComhairieoir Séamas Ó Braoin, Cathaoirleach, Comhairle Chontae an Chlair
mar chomóradh ar 100 blián ó Éirí amach 1916.
Tionscnamh i gclar “Éire 1916” e seo,
a urrú ag Comhairle Chontae an Chláir agus Iontobhas Cathartha na hInse Teo.

South side

An Sfear Céid
The Centurial Sphere

19
.....
2016

CLÁR COMÓRTHA
CÉAD BLIAN CENTENARY PROGRAMME

(Clare County Council coat of arms)

North side:

This Centurial Sphere was unveiled on 26th June 2016 by Cllr. James Breen, Cathaoirleach, Clare County Council
to mark the anniversary of the 1916 Rising.
This is an initiative of The “Ireland 2016” programme sponsored by Clare County Council and Ennis Civic Trust Ltd.

West side:

Designed and crafted
by Paddy and Conor Murray Kilkee Forge

[The sphere carries lines from poems and songs about and from different parts of Clare, celebrating the county’s cultural tradition.]