

Name of memorial: Wolfe Tone memorial

Inventory No. 1552

Place: Wolfe Tone square.

Address and map reference: Wolfe Tone square, Bantry, Co. Cork.
Map reference: V 995 485 (Sheet 85).
Co-ordinates: N 51.6803°; W 9.4529°.

Access: at all times. Parking: adjacent. Disabled access: yes.

Position: in the centre of the square.

Description and dimensions: bronze statue on square stone plinth, with bronze plaque on plinth.

Height of statue: appx. 200cms. Width: appx. 80cms. Depth: appx. 60cms.

Recorded by: Edward Bourke 3 June 2019

Text:

(Front of plinth)

THEOBALD WOLFE TONE
1763 – 1798

(on the plaque)

Theobald Wolfe Tone
1763 – 1798

“To unite the whole people of Ireland,
To abolish the memory of all past
Dissensions and to substitute the common name
Of Irishman in place of the denominations
Of Protestant, Catholic and Dissenter.”

Ar an 3adh lá Aibreáin 1899 d’ainmnidh Coimisinéirí Baile Bheanntaí d’aon ghuth an chearnóg seo le hómós do Wolfe Tone, Tógadh an leacht seo mar chomúradh air
san aois nua 2000 AD.*

dealbhadóir [sculptor] Jeanne Rynhart

*[On the 3rd day of April 1899 Bantry Town Commissioners unanimously named this square in honour of Wolfe Tone. This monument was erected to commemorate him in the new age 2000 AD.]