*Translation (by Bernadette Codd Pegum; versions of names in English by Pail O'Brien and Ronan McGreevy))

The people of Leitrim and Longford, together with their families overseas in America, erected this memorial. In proud and loving memory, the names are carved here of those who gave their service so willingly to Ireland and died on behalf of the Irish Republic, as proclaimed on Easter Monday, 1916.

Brigadier Seán Connolly
Brigadier Séamus Rynn or Wrynne
Commandant Joe Beirne
Captain Michael Baxter
Captain John J. O'Reilly
Lieutenant John O'Reilly

“We died in the hope that the Irish Nation will live on. Our blood will baptise and revive the old country again”
– Seán MacDiarmada.
