

Name of memorial: The O'Rahilly Memorial

Inventory No. 180

Place: O'Rahilly Parade

Address and map reference: O'Rahilly Parade, off Moore Street, Dublin 1. Map reference O 157 348

Position: On wall of modern building on north side of the street.

Description and dimensions: Limestone plaque with inscription; height approx 80 cms, width approx 100cms. 100cms. Above, in bronze, a harp in a wreath of oak and laurel leaves and, on each side, fascii supporting bowls with flames.

Recorded by: Michael Pegum, 29th April, 2005.

Text:

Written after I was shot -

*Darling Nancy,
I was shot
leading a rush
up Moore Street
took refuge in a doorway.*

*While I was there I heard the men
pointing out where I was and I made a bolt for the lane I am* in now.

*I got more
one bullet I think.*

*Tons and tons of love
dearie to you and to the boys & to Nell & Anna. It was a good fight anyhow.*

*Please deliver this
to Nannie O Rahilly
40, Herbert Park
Dublin
Goodbye darling.*

Unveiled by Blathnaid Uí Rathaille, daughter-in-law, 29th April, 2005.