

Name of memorial: Browne-Clayton Memorial

Inventory No. 703

Place: All Saints Church

Address and map reference: All Saints Church, Aghade, Co. Carlow. Map reference: S 851 684

Position: North wall of nave.

Description and dimensions: Brass plate. Height: appx. 55cms.; width: appx. 45cms.

Recorded by: Michael Pegum, 14 May, 2011.

Text:

Crest

Motto: "Quo fas et gloria ducunt"

To the memory of
William Clayton Browne-Clayton
Lieutenant
The Queen's Own
Royal West Kent Regiment,
who fell whilst leading his men
in the action on 30th Sept. 1897,
at Agrah in the Mamand Valley*,
Aged 24 years.
He was buried on the Malakand

—————
Erected by his Brother Officers
in affectionate remembrance of his Gallant and Soldierly conduct.

Reference: http://www.turtlebunbury.com/history/history_family/hist_family_b_clayton.html

* Afghanistan, now in Pakistan