

Name of memorial: Spanish Civil War Memorial

Inventory No. 808

Place: Donegall Street

Address and map reference: Donegall Street, Belfast.
Map reference: J 339 746 (Map 15)
Co-ordinates: N 54° 36' 09"; W 5° 55' 45"

Position: in a small park opposite St. Anne's Cathedral.

Description and dimensions: Bronze bust on a stone pedestal. Height: 160cms appx. Width: 40 cms appx.

Recorded by: Michael Pegum, 3rd August, 2012.

Text:

Dedicated to the people of Belfast,
the island of Ireland and beyond who joined the XV International Brigade to fight Fascism
In the Spanish Civil War 1936 – 39,
and to those men and women from all traditions
who supported the Spanish working people and their Republic.

This sculpture was commissioned by the International Brigades Commemoration Committee and unveiled by Bob Doyle International Brigade Veteran on 13th October, 2007.

Sculpted by Anto Brennan.
Erected by the Open Window Production Team.
Gerard Brennan.

---

No Pasaran

They Shall Not Pass